If I had only
forgotten
future greatness and looked at the green
things
and reached out to those around me
and smelled the air
and ignored the forms and self styled obligation
and heard
the rain on the roof
and it's not too late.

I
 have been given another
 day.
 Another
 day to hear
 and read
 and talk
 and ask
 and walk and love.
 I
 am
 alive for another day.
 There
 are those who aren't.

Today
 I want to do things
 to be doing them not to be doing something else.
 I do not want to do things to sell myself
 on myself.
 I
 don't want
 to do nice things for people
 so I will be
 "nice".
 I
 want to work
 work.

Today
I
don't want
to live for
I want to live.

All
 I want
 to do need to do is stay in rhythm
 with myself.
 All I want
 is to do
 what I do
 and not try to do what I don't do.
 Just
 keep pace
 with myself.
 Just be what I will be.

I
am now what I am
and here is where I will spend my energy.
I need
all
my energy
to be what I am
today.

Today I will
work
in rhythm with myself
and not with what I should be.
And to work
in rhythm
I
must keep tune
to myself.

I can not make my mark for all time — those concepts are mutually exclusive.
Lasting effect is a self-contradictory term.
Meaning does not exist in the future
and neither do I.
Nothing will have meaning ultimately.
Nothing will even mean tomorrow what it did today.
Meaning changes with the context.
My meaningfulness
is here.
It is enough that I am of value to someone today. It is enough that I made a difference now.

A Friday To Forget — Sept. 22

Rumors had been passing around school all week that there would be a walkout on Friday. Many didn't believe them; some didn't hear them; but, when third period came on Friday, September 22, about 400 students walked out and stood in the parking area waiting for "something" or just "anything" to happen. Confusion was apparent from both the protestors and the so-called enemy, the administration.

The fire alarm was pulled several minutes later and most of the school emptied. Policemen arrived and students were given a short grace period to return to classes after which the school doors were guarded by faculty members and classes resumed under a semi-Marshall Law.

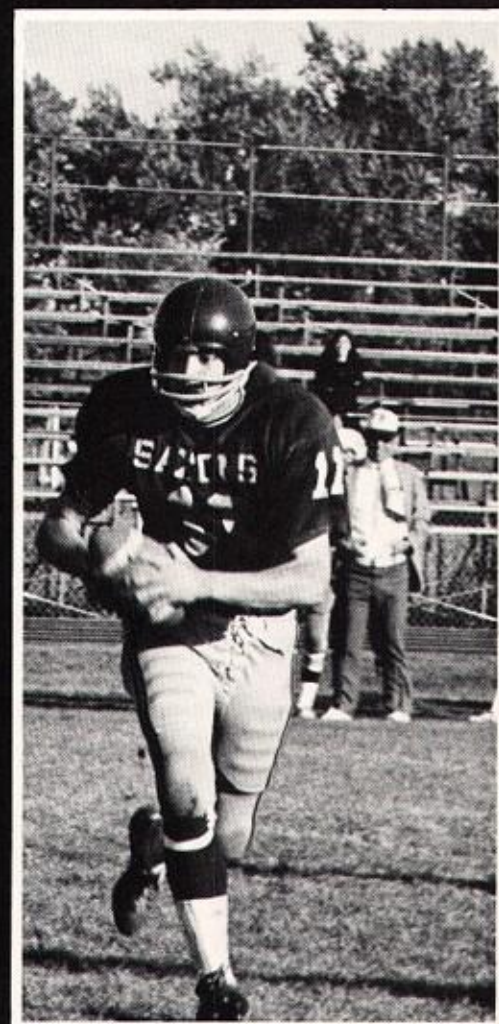

In all, three hundred students were suspended. By the following Wednesday all the necessary parent conferences had been held except two and school was back to normal.

The memorable day which was suppose to demand student rights was a dismal failure. Open lunch, one of the points in question, was being discussed on the student council agenda (the means for proper change of board policy). After the walkout, led by a few self-appointed despots, little had been done to change policy and the action had certainly left Schaumburg High School with an eye-sore image in the community.

Sesame Street

The Dance

The day and evening's festivities were the result of many months planning by the student council committee. The entire week before the grand weekend was filled with activities for the student body and spirits were running high by Saturday. The day started with a parade and then an exciting football game that everyone enjoyed. That night at the dance the homecoming theme "Sesame Street" was carried off to perfection. Many old friends were there from the class of '72 and the music was excellent.

Award Winners

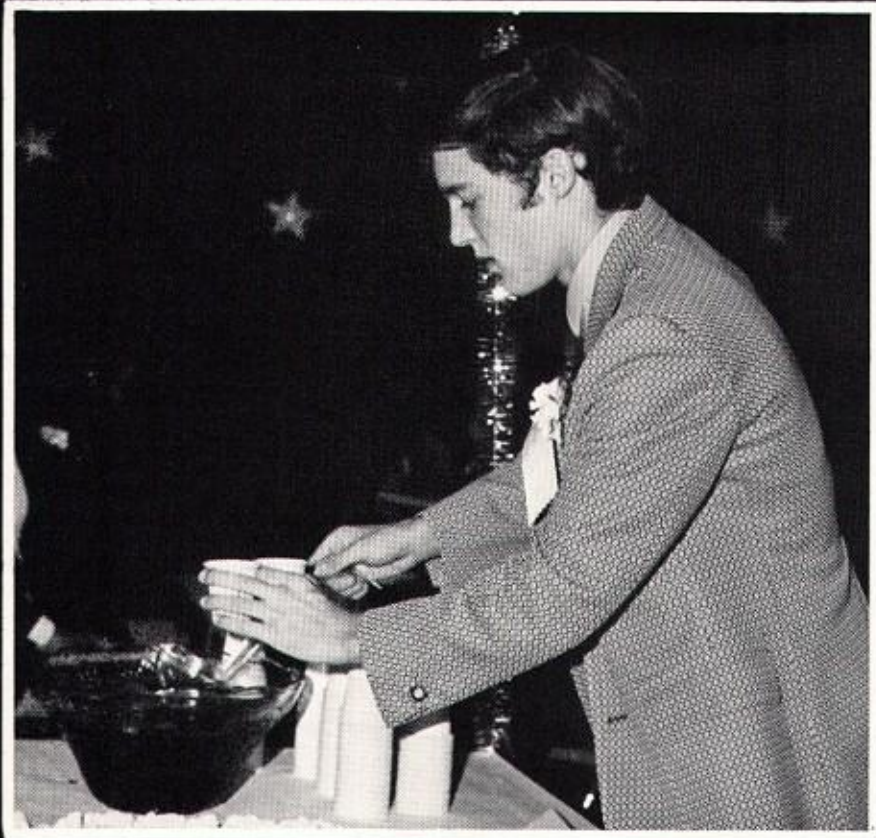

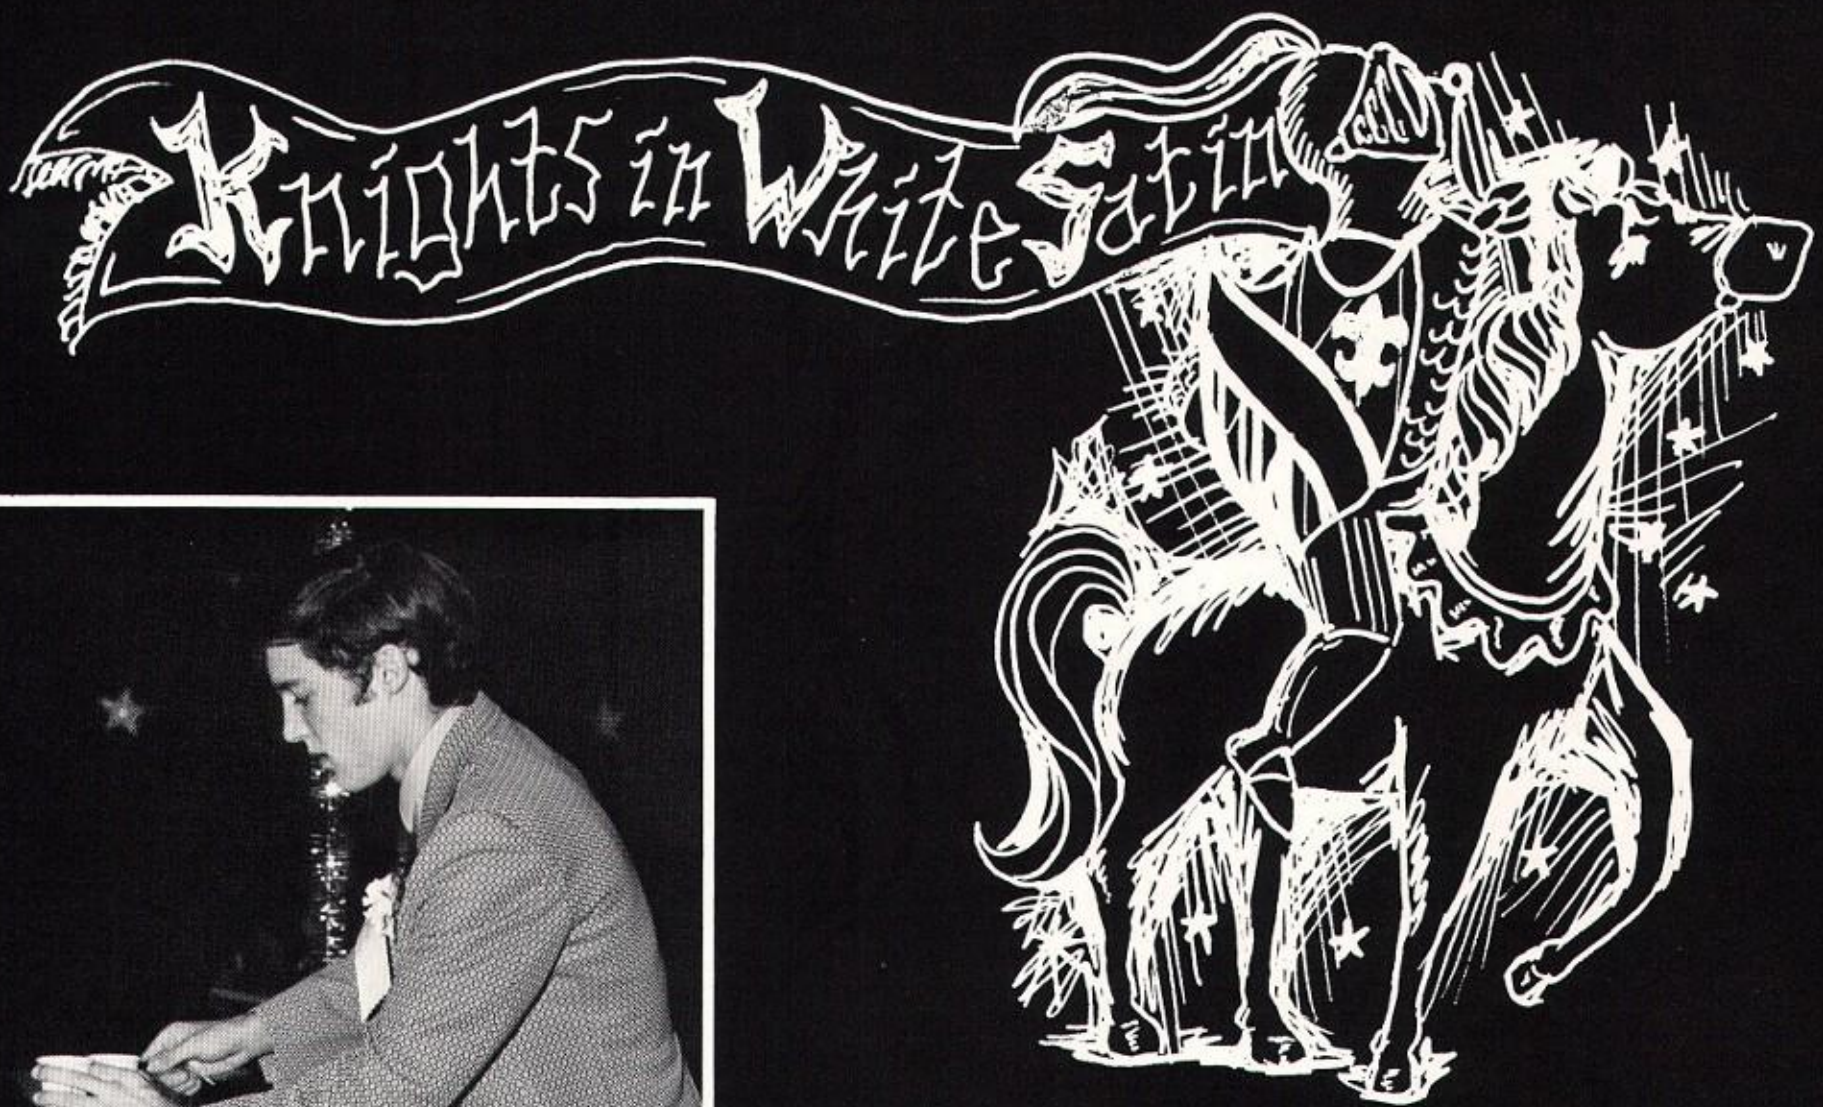

Schaumburg High School had its share of award winning students this year. Sue Trendel was chosen as the Illinois state representative to national competition in general clerical work. Her combined skills in mathematics, typewriting and the use of the adding machine won her a trip to the nationals in New Mexico. Vicci Sartorius received plaudits from the Leukemia League for her writing talents while her co-editor, Bob Hommowun, received a special sponsor's award from the Sextant's advisor, Karl Barons. Beth Lemrise and Mary Beth Christy received newspaper awards from N.I.U. for outstanding editorial and sports articles, respectively. Beth will co-edit the 1974 SEXTANT with Rhonda O'Shea.

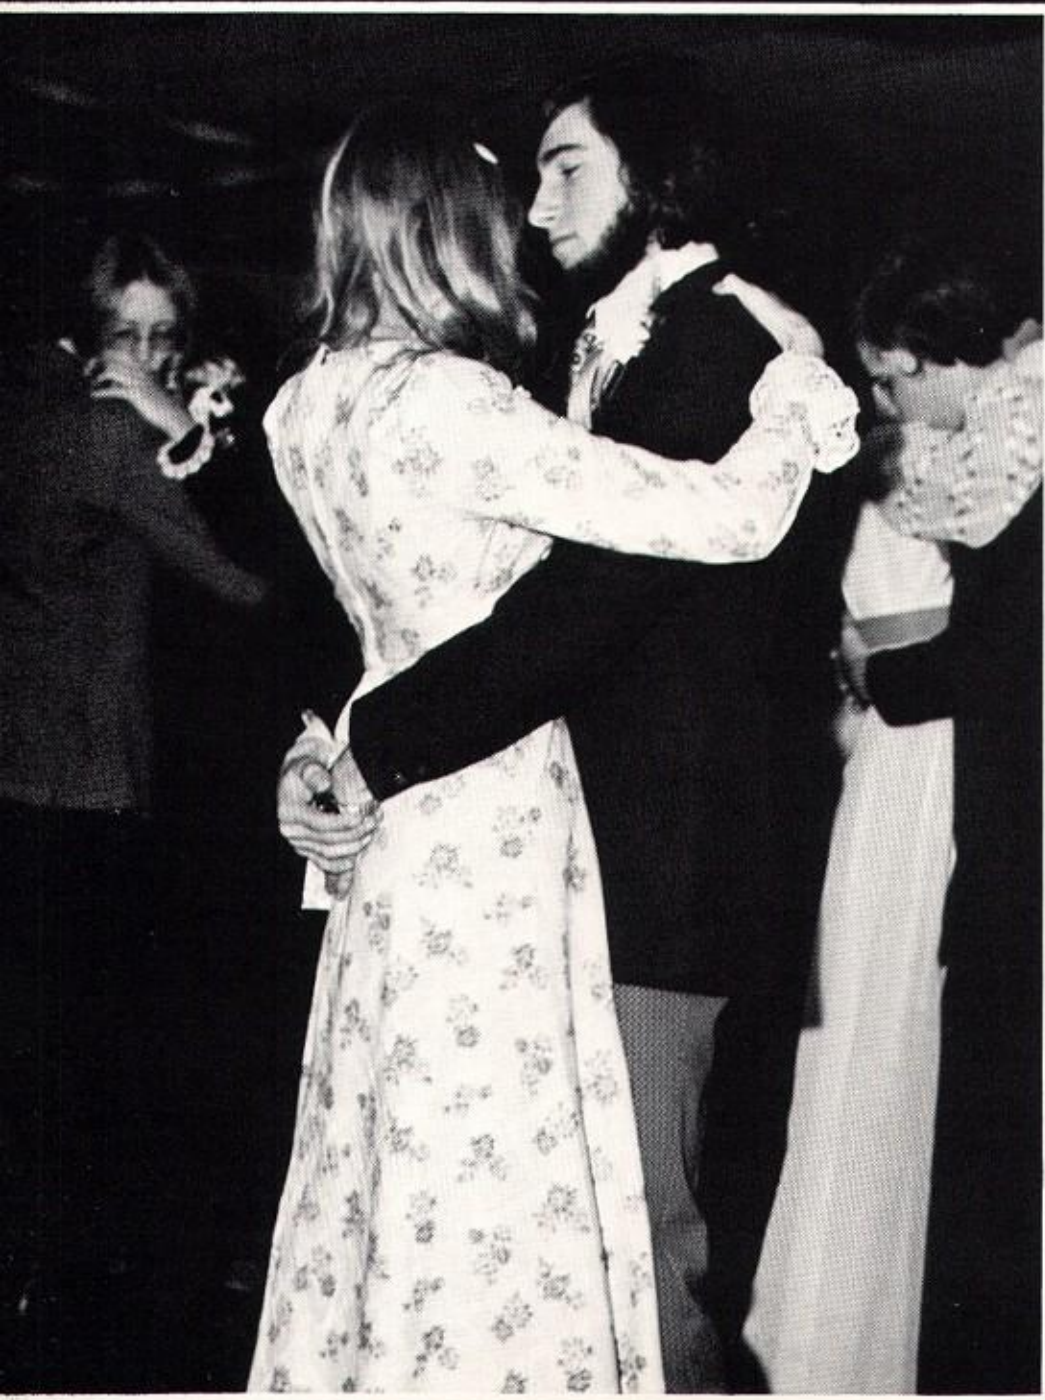

Winning Activity At S.H.S.

Typical of the Schaumburg activities that met with success this year were the Chess team which won the District 211 competition and the women's Bowling team which captured second in the state. Sharon Neikamp was the coach of the victorious bowlers.

Senior Class Brings Jones- STYX-CRACKERS In Concert

On January 27 the Senior Class sponsored a concert for all Schaumburg and Conant students. Senior, Andy Jones, and his group performed original works. The fast-paced group, STYX, gave a fine performance as the second group on the band-filled evening. CRACKERS, who had a previous engagement in Chicago that evening, arrived late but more than made up for it with their 101 percent performance. The final number brought the crowd to its feet shouting with enthusiasm for the Senior's efforts.

Playboy has its foldouts. And this year there was Burt Reynolds. Not to be outdone is the Schaumburg SHIMMER with our bunny, Kathy Glabinski. Serving as the Easter Bunny's helper, Kathy paid her costumed visit to the school the past three years on the last day before the much needed spring break. Originally the result of her mother's dare, Kathy enjoyed the day and so her tradition at S.H.S. — hopping through the halls and sharing her "goodie basket" with Saxons young and old.

Same Old Story — New Song

In a growing community students learn to anticipate change. District 211's students are used to opening new schools. When new boundaries were again being formed, parents of two interest groups appeared before the Board of Education and requested that their now freshman students at Schaumburg High School not be moved. After many heated meetings, close to 100 freshman students learned they would become sophomores at Conant High School. A small section of Hanover Park was annexed to the new Hoffman High School. The loss of these talented students and their parental support will hurt the established programs — mainly language, sports and music at Schaumburg High School. So the old story of new boundary lines was once again told. And for some former Saxons, it's time to learn a new school song.

Second Auction Lacks Success

Principal Carl Weimer served as auction master as student government attempted to raise funds for foreign exchange. Although good items were up for sale, little money was received for the worth-while cause. Student apathy once again won!

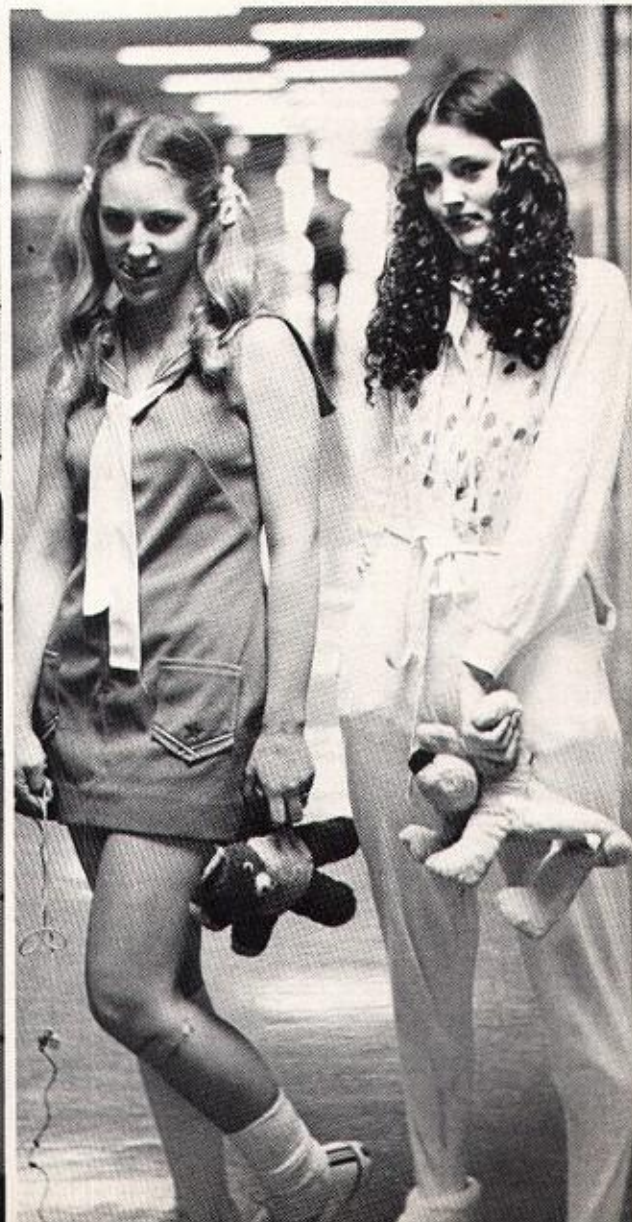

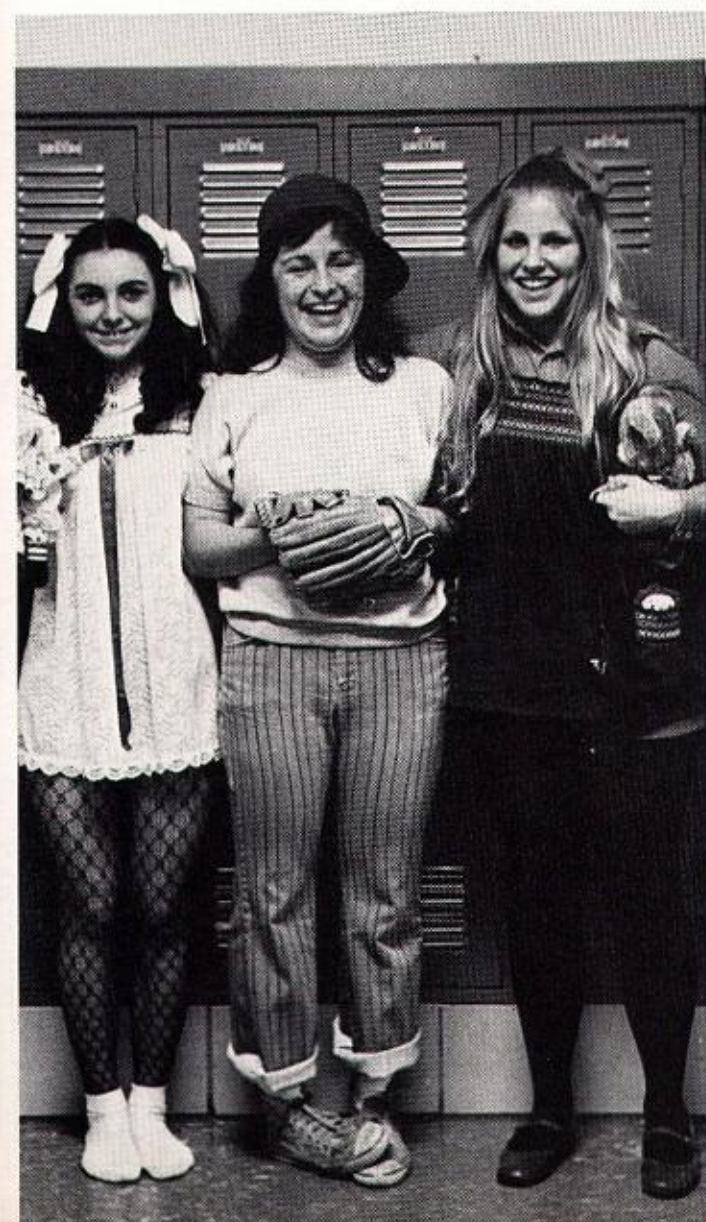

RIGHT: Board Member, Robert Creek; Principal, Carl Weimer; Guest Speaker, Dennis Larson; Advisor N.H.S., Joanne Stevens; Superintendent, Dr. Richard C. Kolze; Dean, William Bailey. N.H.S. is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student by the faculty of Schaumburg High School. The impressive candlelight ceremonies were held May 16th.

MAN is born in darkness — the darkness of ignorance and the fear of the unknown — but for each of us there shines a light — the light of truth. With this light man need not remain in the darkness.

Senior Week

THE WEEK BEFORE PROM was an interesting sight to see at S.H.S. A visitor walking through the halls during this week on any given day was apt to see Senior students appearing a bit odd. Sponsored by Senior Class, each day in the week was supposed to be a specific dress up day for Seniors. The days and whether or not a certain day had been made "official" by the office was a bit confusing. But as these pictures testify, many Seniors participated to the fullest and the week brought lots of laughs to everyone.

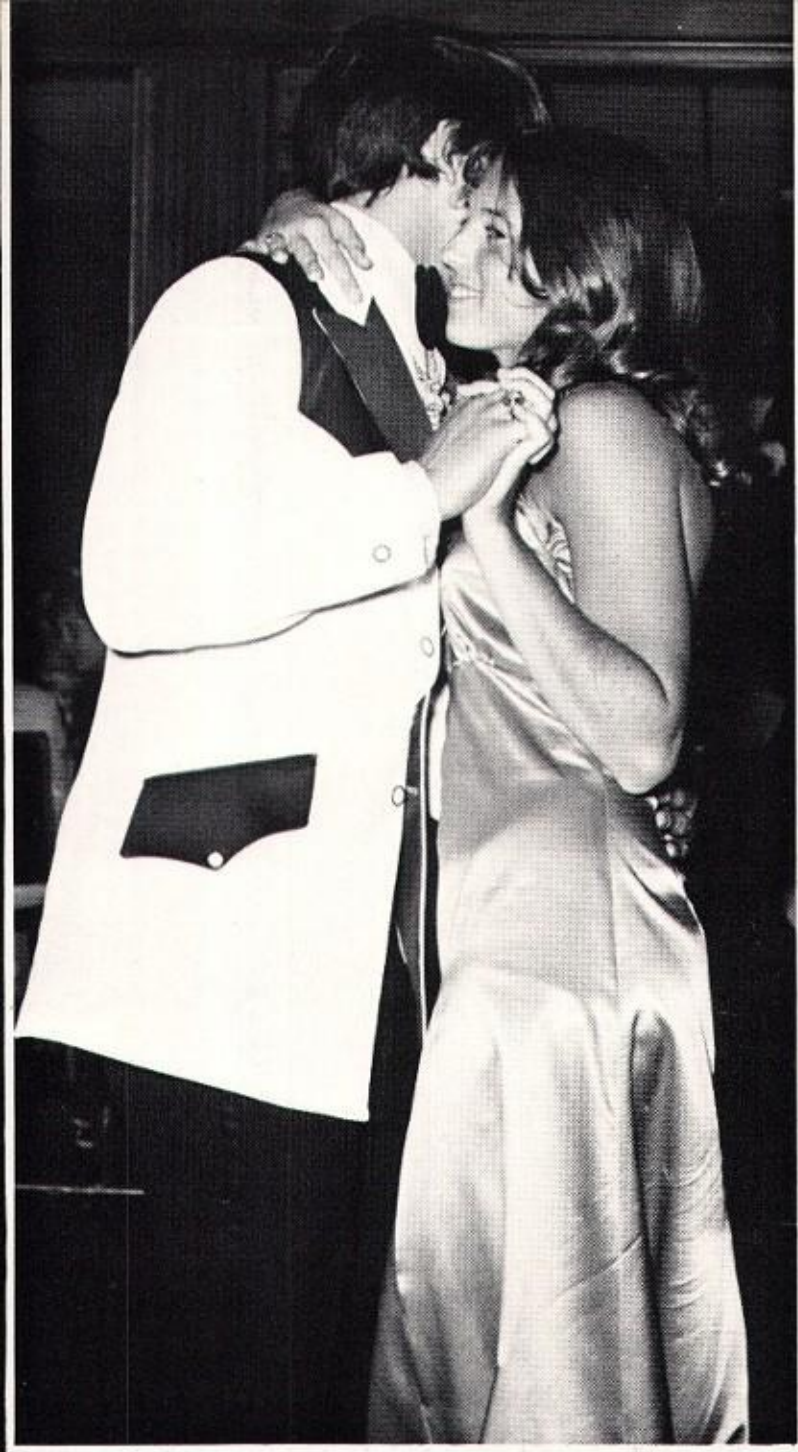

Moments to Remember

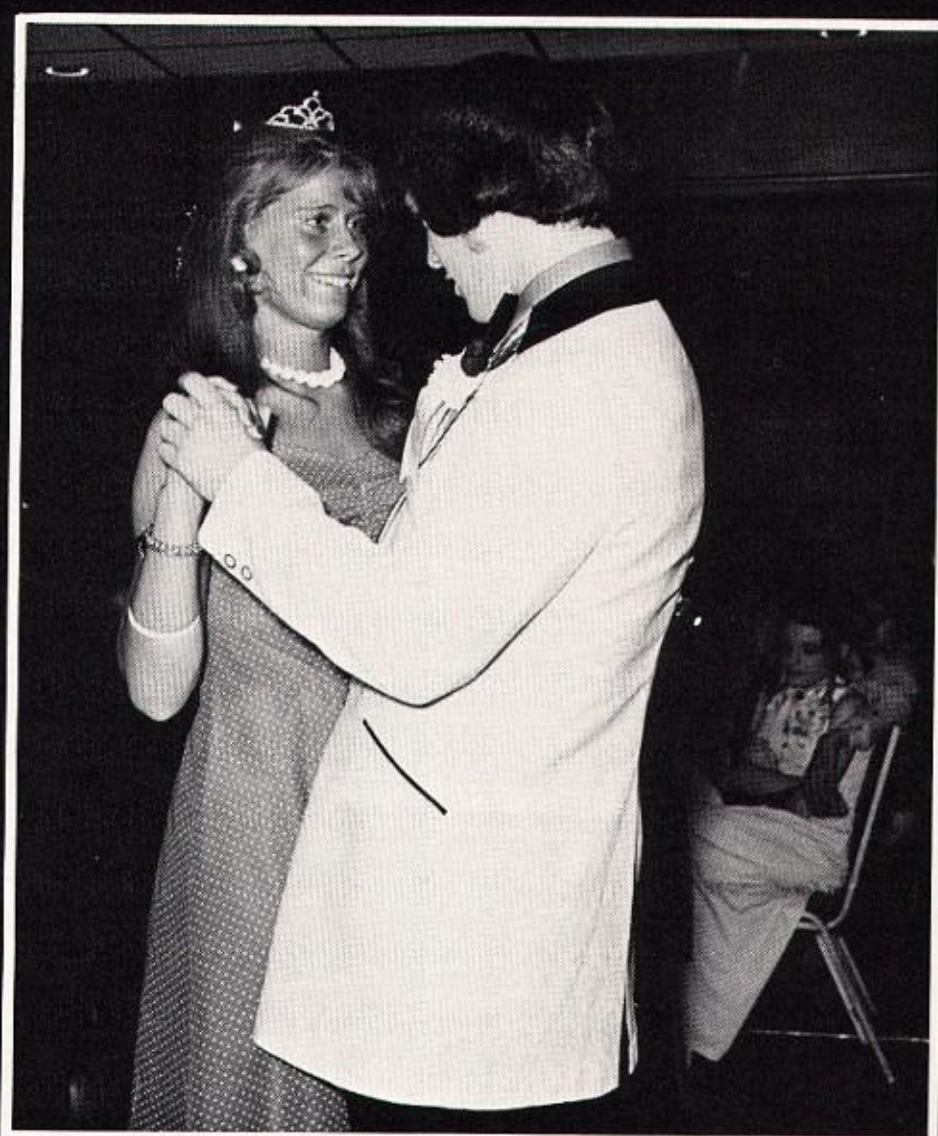

Prom 1973

Villa Olivia Scene Of Prom

Held in the impressive Empire Room at the Villa Olivia, the Junior class presented Schaumburg's second dinner-dance prom. The main course of the dinner was a delicious chicken kiev (breast of chicken) cooked in wine sauce. The music began at nine o'clock with Bill Scott and his orchestra. They played many popular tunes in soft, sentimental rhythms, including the Prom's theme "Moments to Remember" and the song of the year, "Killing me Softly". There were slides showing events from the past year, the honoring of the very lovely Queen, Terry Brandenburg and her court, and the excitement of the garter pull. Officer Alley was presented a departing gift at the prom. There was dancing and the remembering of past fun. Quiet walks around the small pond just outside the Villa brought truly many moments to remember.

BELOW: JUNIOR ATTENDANT, Denise Scrabacz; QUEEN Terry Brandenburg, escorted by Steve Hull; SENIOR ATTENDANT, Laurie Shaftic.

Steve and his Queen begin the dancing.

The quiet waltz, the noisy fun
The ball who's prize we almost won, We will have these moments to remember.

Though summer turns to winter
And the present disappears.
The laughter we were glad to share,
Will add up through the years.
When other nights and other days They find us gone our separate ways.

We will have these moments to remember.

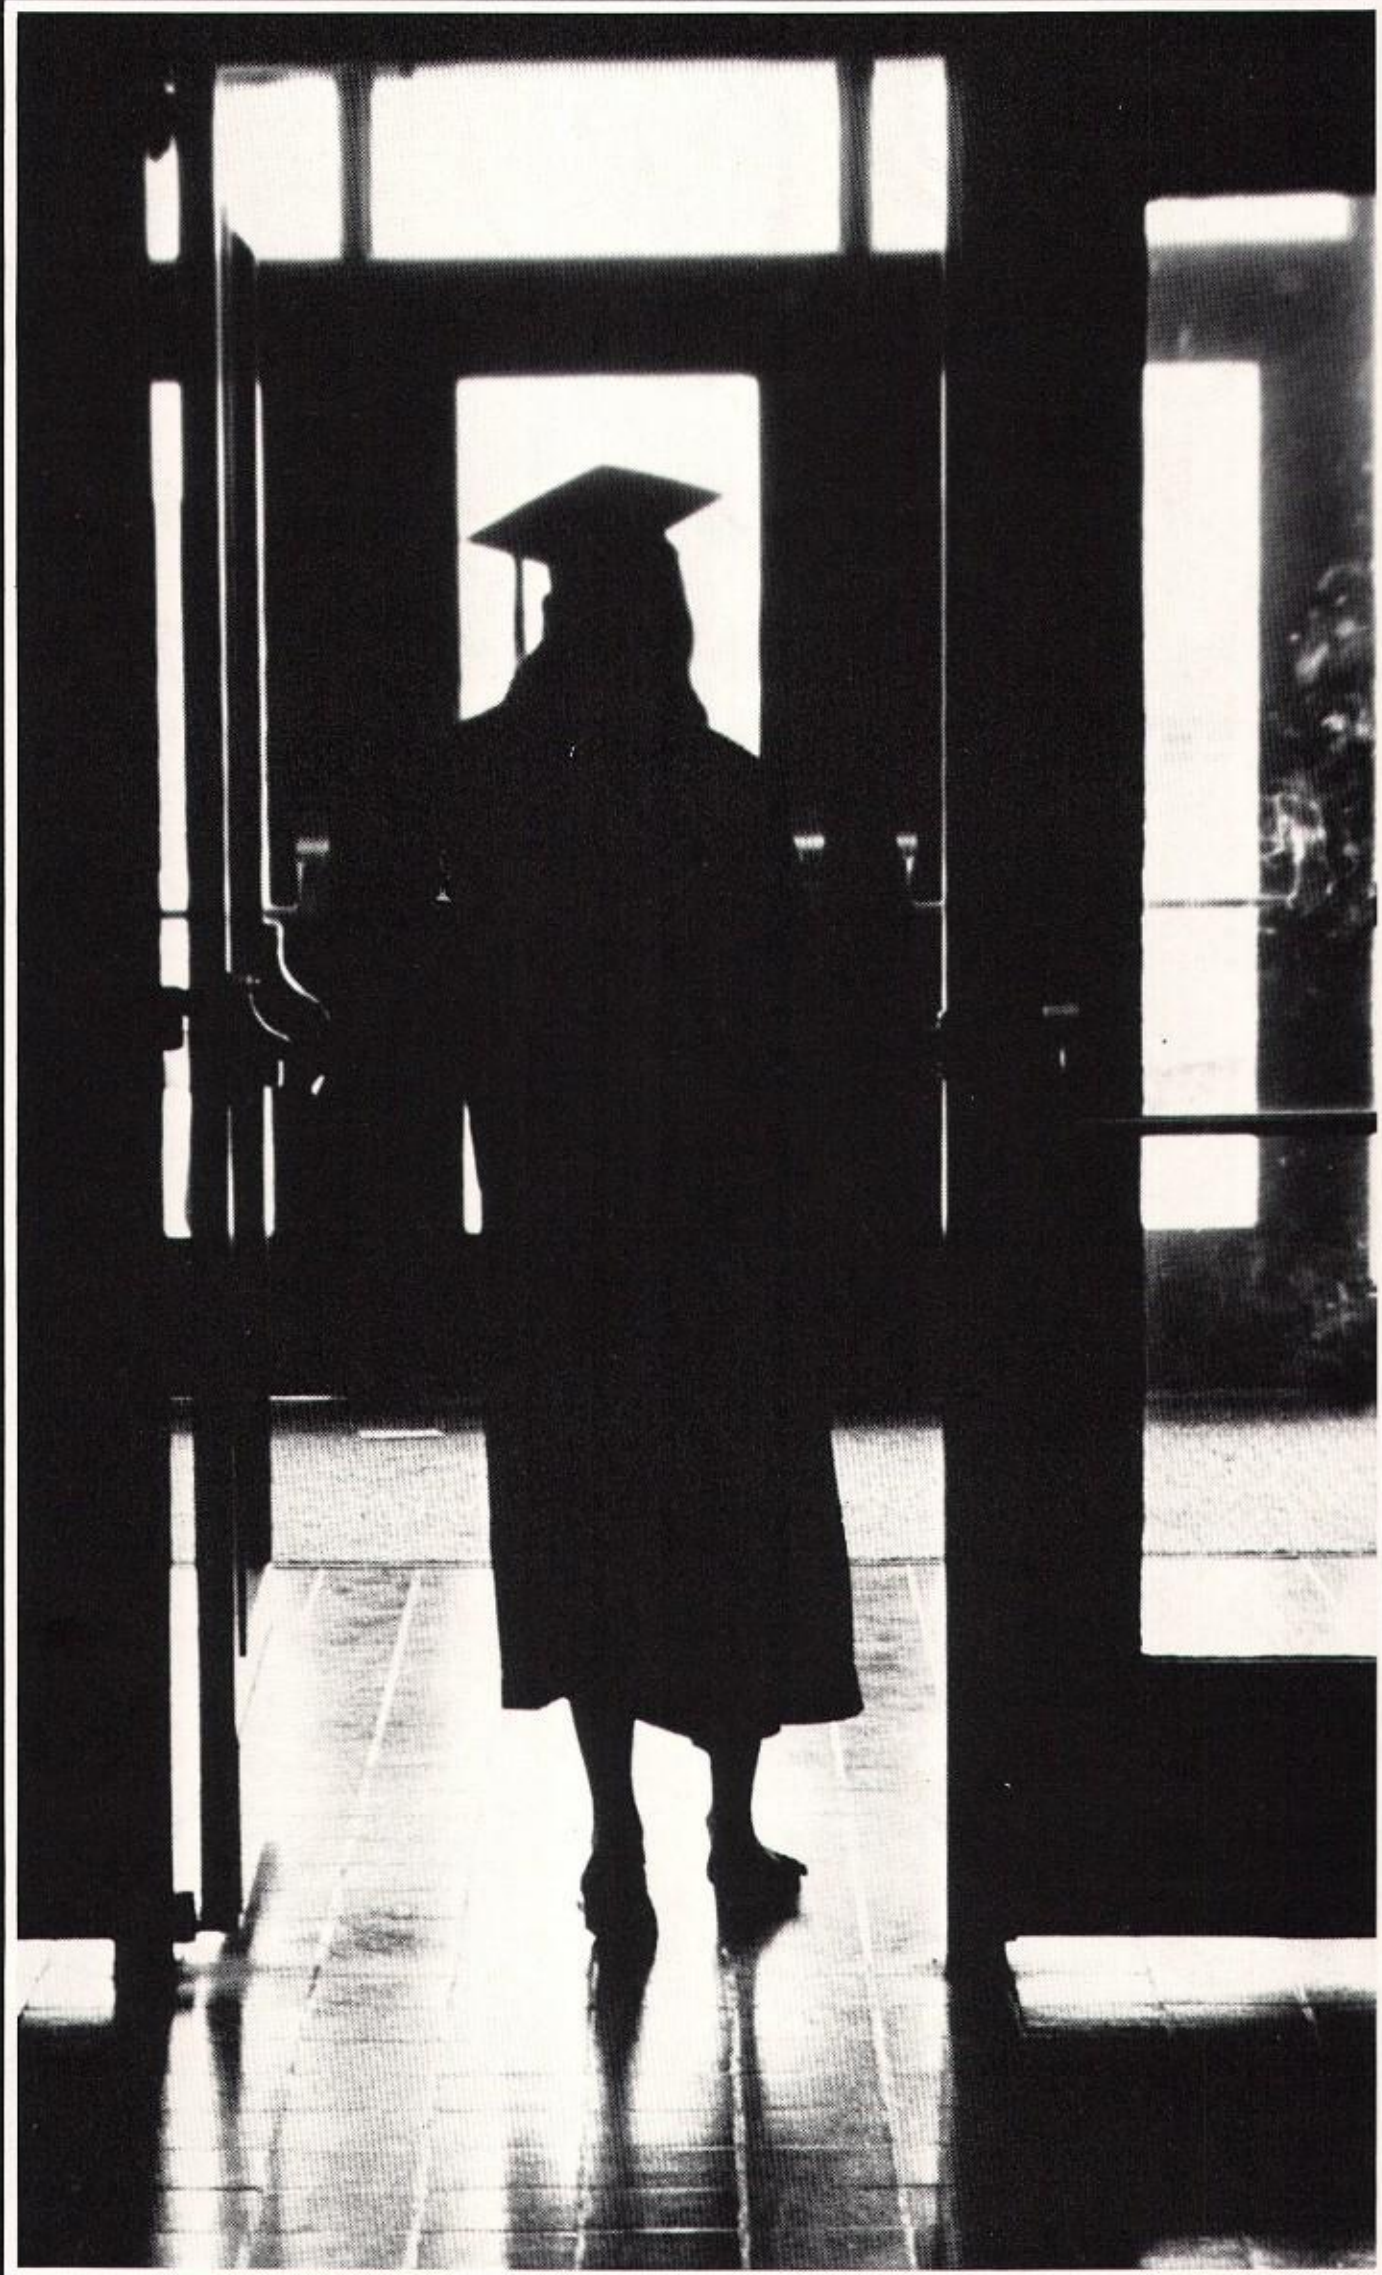

Graduation

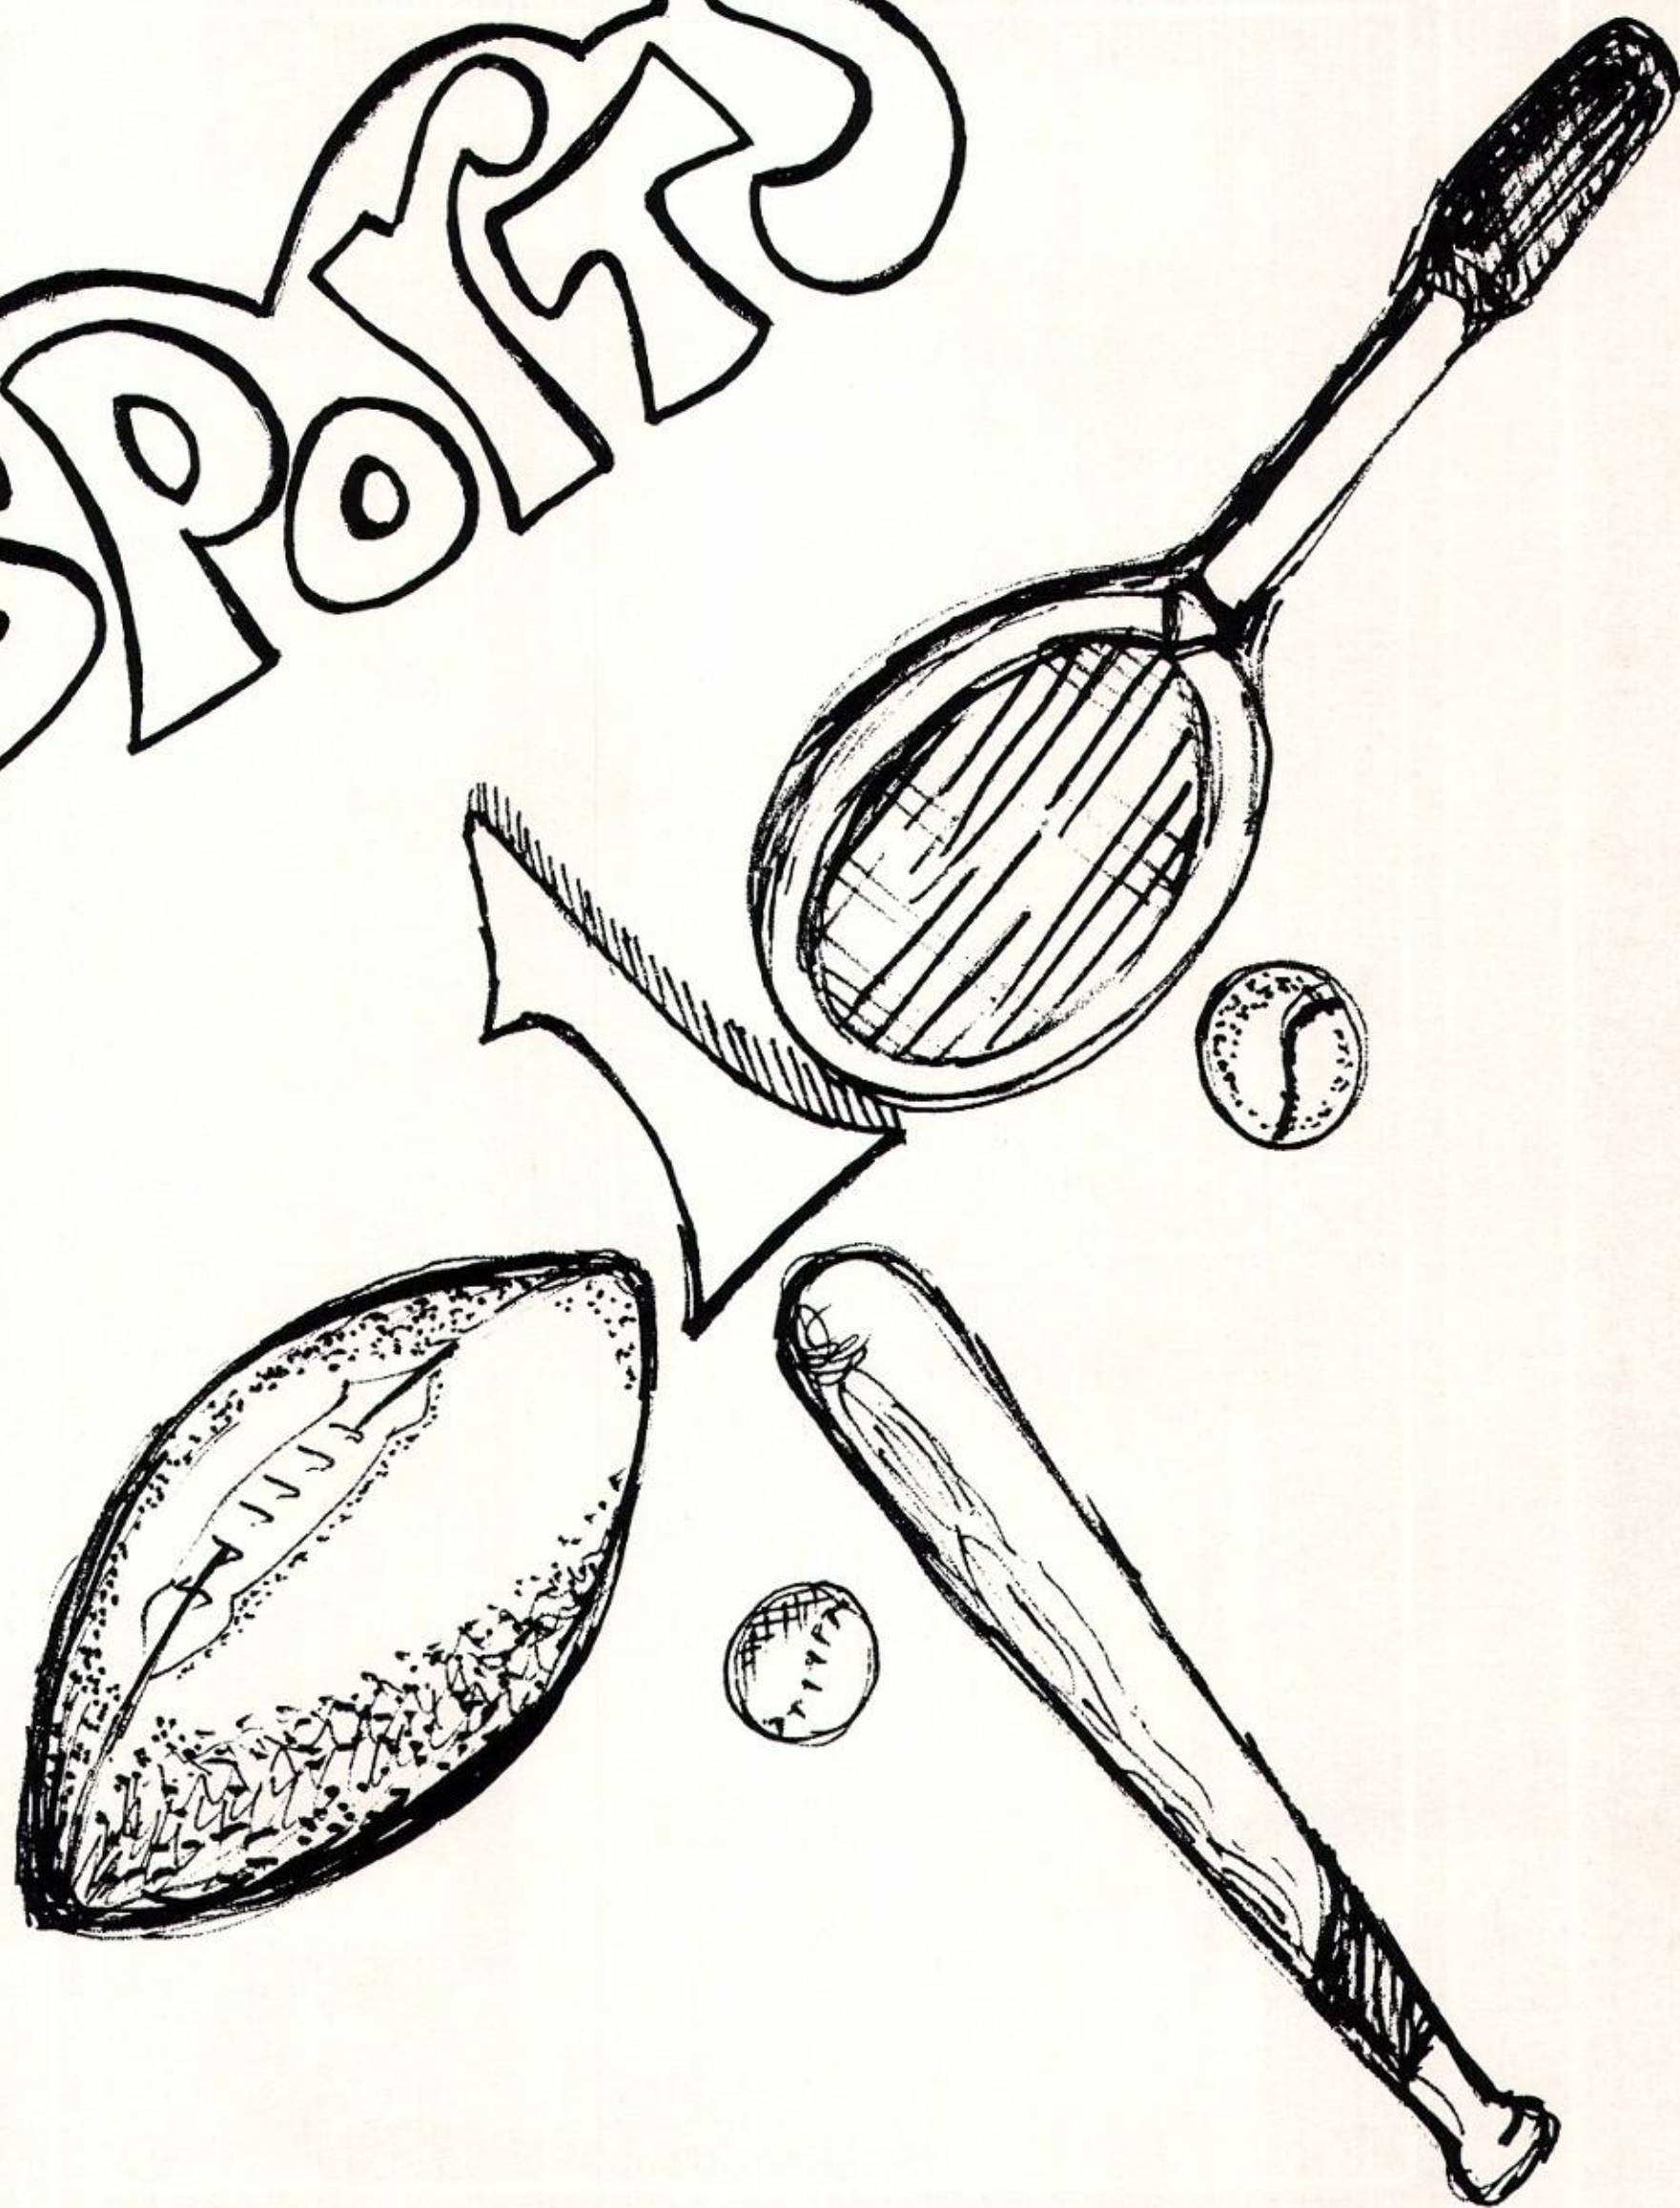

"Regardless of your viewpoint, most everyone will look back on four years of high school and realize that they cannot ignore this experience. Memories of disappointment, satisfaction and indifference will involve everyone. Whatever your memories, they cannot be changed." (the parting words of principal Carl Weimer to the graduating class of '73) The ceremonies were impressive and fulfilled the dreams of parents and students alike. Carl Flaks, staff speaker, and Jon Kalkwarf made their speeches trying to put into words the thoughts and feelings of the night. Board member Glen Hargrave gave words of advice in his speech before he and Edward Perry presented diplomas. Then the strains of Pomp and Circumstance and the Class of '73 left high school to begin a new and different journey. "I would like to leave you with one idea. Your challenge, will be to look forward ..."

New Tradition Serious — Faculty Competition Tough

Held in early spring in a hot gymnasium, the student body supported a faculty game between our teachers and arch rivals, Conant. Most of the spectators expected a comical night of entertainment. Moments after the game started, however, it was evident that the courtmen were serious about hitting the hoop. The game, held to raise funds for lettermen's clubs at both 211 schools, will become an annual event. Next year's action will be on Conant's home ground when the Cougars will attempt to revenge the mighty Saxon's faculty victory.

IT ISN'T EASY ... to apologize
 to begin again
 to admit error
 to be unselfish
 to face a sneer
 to be considerate
 to endure success
 to keep on trying to profit by mistakes to forgive and forget to think and then act to keep out of the rut to make the best of little to shoulder deserved blame to subdue an ugly temper BUT IT WAS WORTH IT!

Schaumburg wanted tradition and we got it! The 1973 Student Council, in spite of campaign promises, moved in the same slow circles as it had done since it was initiated. President Frank Halatek served in office until second semester. At that time he resigned and Laura Hoerich assumed the reign. Karen Connell won the position of vice-president but it was too late to save the year. Students of Schaumburg wondered if they would ever elect a president to serve a full term. We might never know! Next year there will be no student council as such but rather a Principal's Advisory Board and student involvement groups. Amidst student power plays and arguing over rules of order, no real sense of accomplishment was felt by the few devoted representatives. Many resigned and apathy became a motto.

RIGHT, EXECUTIVE BOARD — Mr. Ferdinand, Laura Hoerich, Karen Connell, Karen Winkels, Mike Hommowun. BELOW, STUDENT COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES — ROW 1: Ruth Hill, LeeAnn Deneen, Pat Carryer, Kathy Mayeda. ROW 2: Cathy Arnold, Patti McQueen, Mary Leonard, Patti O'Shea, Jeanine Worst. ROW 3: Frank Halatek, Jim Klein, Jim Villers, Lou Burry. ROW 4: Diane Di Bartolomeo, Carol Thorsen, Steve Schlosser, Mary O'Shea, Ed Amato, Jon Kalkwarf.

Medical Careers

Honor Society

National Honor Society was quite active during the past year. They sponsored a concessions stand for a wrestling tournament in December and also handled sales for calendars, Senior buttons and book sales for school departments. Some of the members were involved in a tutoring service for desiring students.

The Medical Careers Club visited Great Lakes Naval Hospital and also aided their treasury with a flower sale for St. Patrick's day. Their most commendable idea was the adoption of a girl at Dixon State Hospital for the Retarded. School nurse, Mrs. Deguisne, sponsored this interest club.

Senior Class Committee

Diane DiBartolomeo, Barb Berryhill and Nancy Carbone served as officers of the Class of 1973. Sponsored by Mr. Vayo, the seniors traditionally leave a gift from the class to the school. This year's senior class decided to present an inlaid crest to the school which will be placed in either the main hall or in the gymnasium.

Jon Kalkwarf and Mr. Carl Flaks were elected graduation speakers by the senior class of 1973.

Color Guard

Twirlers

COLOR GUARD — Judy Trendel, Renee Goben, Leah Little, Debbie Long, Pam Carrell. TWIRLERS — Terry McGlennen, Linda Goldberg, Gail Schreiner.

The three Schaumburg twirlers performed with the marching band during the football season and during the year took part in competitions throughout the area. At the U.S.T.A., Linda Goldberg and Terry McGlennen each won a first place rating while Gail Schreiner placed second. The Color Guard performed at all our home games presenting the colors during halftime. Often they performed in conjunction with the PomPon squad.

Office Occupations

Chess Club

Office Occupations is a vocational program offered to give students on-the-job training in offices. The teacher-coordinator at school relates class instruction to what the girls will be doing in their own particular placement offices. Deborah Holton, Juanita Lucchesi, Vicci Sartorius, Donna Willis, Patti Schiller and Sue Trendel were all first place winners in area competition. Sue Trendel won first place in the state conference at Springfield and went on to represent Illinois in the nationals.

French Club was sponsored by Miss Peterson and Mrs. Hague. They were assisted by president, Sue Besette; vice-president, Tammy Miner; and, secretary, Pam Mefford. A sale of pom poms added to homecoming festivities as did their menu and original entertainment at the International Dinner. Final efforts of the club went toward making a trip to Canada. Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Lemar, also followed an active schedule from fall to spring. President Lee Wade, Secretary Cindy Solik and Treasurer Lorna Majewski were responsible for leading this successful club. The year began with a sale of school jackets, followed by a canned food drive at Thanksgiving and several field trips. They, too, participated in the International Dinner. In the spring many took a trip to Malaga, Spain. German Club was a very active organization at Schaumburg High. The enthusiasm of the sponsor, Mr. Larson, and officers Anna Traple, Sue Kosloske and Sue Stahnke helped accomplish the numerous activities throughout the year. Several trips to restaurants, plays and operas were sprinkled with socials, picnics and the International Dinner to fill the members' schedules. Finally, the spring vacation brought a trip to Germany which ended the fun-filled year.

Shimmer

The 1973 SHIMMER started its year off late due to the December delivery of the 1972 annual. A young and inexperienced staff then began the task of recording the school year at Schaumburg under the editorship of Kim Doner and management of junior, John Westrom. The newspaper, The SEXTANT, under the co-editorship of Vicci Sartorius and Bob Hommowun, started the year off with an opening day of school edition. As the year progressed, many staff members resigned as editorial decisions were made contrary to the wants of the student body.

Septemberfest — Community Profits

Labor Day Weekend has become part of a young tradition Septemberfest for residents of Schaumburg. Many community civic groups were represented in the parade and the following Fair.

During the summer the Concert Choir, as last year, worked on preparing a float to enter in the parade. A dog listening to "His Master's Voice" was the design accompanied by two jitterbugging couples and a collection of dancing records. The float won second place in the judging.

Our Schaumburg Marching Saxons won first place for their music and high stepping.

Schaumburg High School's Marching Band started out a great year by marching at all of Schaumburg's home football games. Then they represented our school while marching in the Saint Patrick's Day parade in Chicago. On Memorial Day weekend they were invited to march in the Indianapolis 500 parade. An invitation to perform in Chicago for a parade honoring President Nixon was refused due to controversial political overtones suggested by board members.

Variety Show Sparked By Charlie Brown

The year's annual Variety Show could honestly be called just that. A lot of hard work, practice, and of course varied talent provided a thoroughly enjoyable program. The "V" Show had two parts — the first showing a serious side, and the second something which could only be called an audience delight. Jon Kalkwarf, M.C. and student director, joined the Choraliers to start the evening of entertainment with selections from "Cabaret". From this, audition winners moved right into the individual talent which ranged from ballet, to dramatic readings, to guitar. The Choraliers came back for the second act based on the musical "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown". Large audiences gave the annual variety show its first standing ovation in three years.

Comic Farce First Egan Production

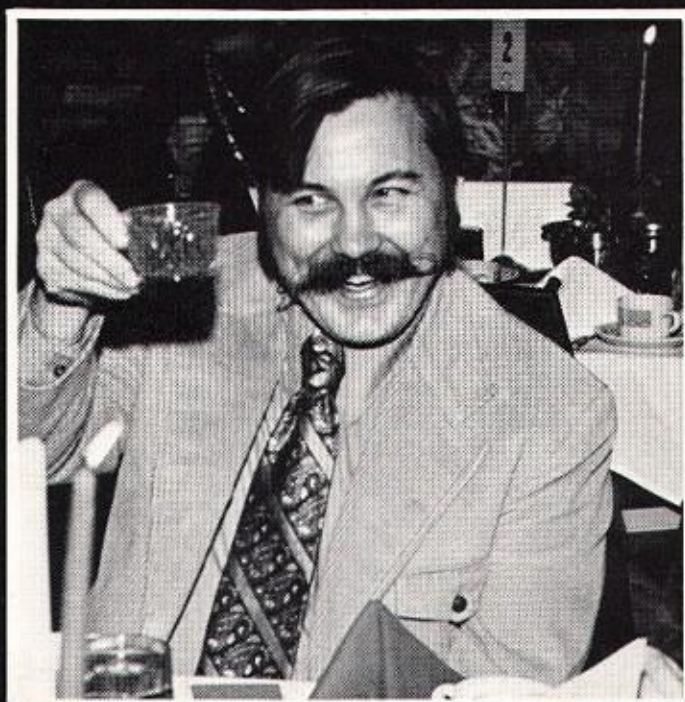

Carol Thorsen, as the regal Dutchess Fenwick, reigned over the stage during Drama Club's three performances of the farce, THE MOUSE THAT ROARED. Joined by Steve Schlosser, Brett Oleskow and Bob Hommowun as leading men, the cast proved Thomas Egan's ability in the role of drama coach. Several novices gave Schaumburg High School fine debut efforts as the mouse truly did roar.

300 At Villa For Madrigal Dinner

have but one story — the stags are moaning; the sky is snowing;
Summer is gone."

(anonymous) December
— the time of cold, icy roads, and snow, signaling the end of the year, the beginning of winter, and the setting for Christmas — a magical season when hope is reborn, and choirs sing of "peace on earth, good will toward men". December brings Christmas trees, close kept secrets wrapped in ribbons and silver paper, and the retold story of the manger birth.
When we think of Christmas, carols, good food, and friends come to mind. As we present our program tonight, we do so in the above tradition hoping our concert will set the mood for your holiday preparations. Our concert sprang from the "tradition" begun last year with a wassail-ing event hosted by concert choir. The event was so well received that this full catered dinner was planned at cost — this time for the public — as our holiday musical offering.

Formal invitations were sent to parents of former and present choir members, faculty and staff, announcing the Concert Choir's December 11th holiday dinner at the Villa Olivia Country Club. Reservations were also accepted from the community. When the grand evening arrived, 300 people in elaborate finery enjoyed a formal cultural presentation featuring the Choir, Choraliers and several soloists. Following an elegantly served meal complete with figgy pudding, the audience joined in a carol sing. The evening closed with a solo recitation of a contemporary holiday poem accompanied by the whispered strains of "Silent Night".

West Side-Capers

March 1 brought an overflow audience to the gymnasium shelf to hear all choruses and the choir present a concert of lighter music. The choruses turned in fine performances. Highlighting the evening was the choir's staged performance of WEST SIDE STORY music. Costumes, dances, lighting, and a narration by Pat Skala added to the Bernstein melodies.

Parents Show Students How Its Done — VIP's Shine

Opening with a grand maneuver to the strains of "Open a New Window", the parent V.I.P. Show, GULLIBLE'S TRAVELS, brought two naive ladies named Gullible to a fly-by-night travel agency for a talent trip never to be forgotten. Featuring volunteer acts interested in raising money for the V.I.P. Club's projects, the show included high stepping dance routines, vocal solos, a pantomime, a recitation and chorus numbers all based on an around-the-world theme. Regardless of nerves, apprehension and a change in directors, the show filled its purpose — to raise a healthy sum, provide enjoyment to the audience and to expose the parents of Schaumburg High School's many talented students.

Dracula Chilling Success

Director Thomas Egan put together a blood curdler for drama club's second play, DRACULA. Jon Kalkwarf acted in the title role of the classic augmented by romantic leads, Randy Anderson and Vicki Vallencourt, with Kim Doner as the comic, Sybil. Carol Thorsen and Steve Schlosser served as student directors of DRACULA which explored numerous aspects of the technical side of the theatre.

Unsung Heroes

This page is dedicated to the "Unsung Heroes" of Schaumburg High School. They are the people who work backstage on the plays and the musical, painted and constructed the scenery, worried about getting all the lighting and sound cues correctly while gradually biting their nails through each scene. These heroes were also the shadows you saw between scenes bringing on and taking off props as quickly and quietly as possible on the anything but adequate Schaumburg cultural facilities.

Urbie Green To S.H.S.

On March 30th Schaumburg High School's gym was packed. Everyone was there to hear the Jazz and Symphonic Bands and the famous trombone player Urbie Green.

The evening started with the Concert Band presenting an arrangement of "Stardust" and then "Sunny" with Urbie Green as guest soloist. Mr. Green played a number of songs with the Jazz Band in which the enthusiasm of the performers was transmitted to the audience. Urban Clifford Green is rated among the greats in the field of Jazz. He has been called by Tony Bennett, Peggy Lee and Frank Sinatra to back up their vocalizing. Today, he is known as New York's top trombonist.

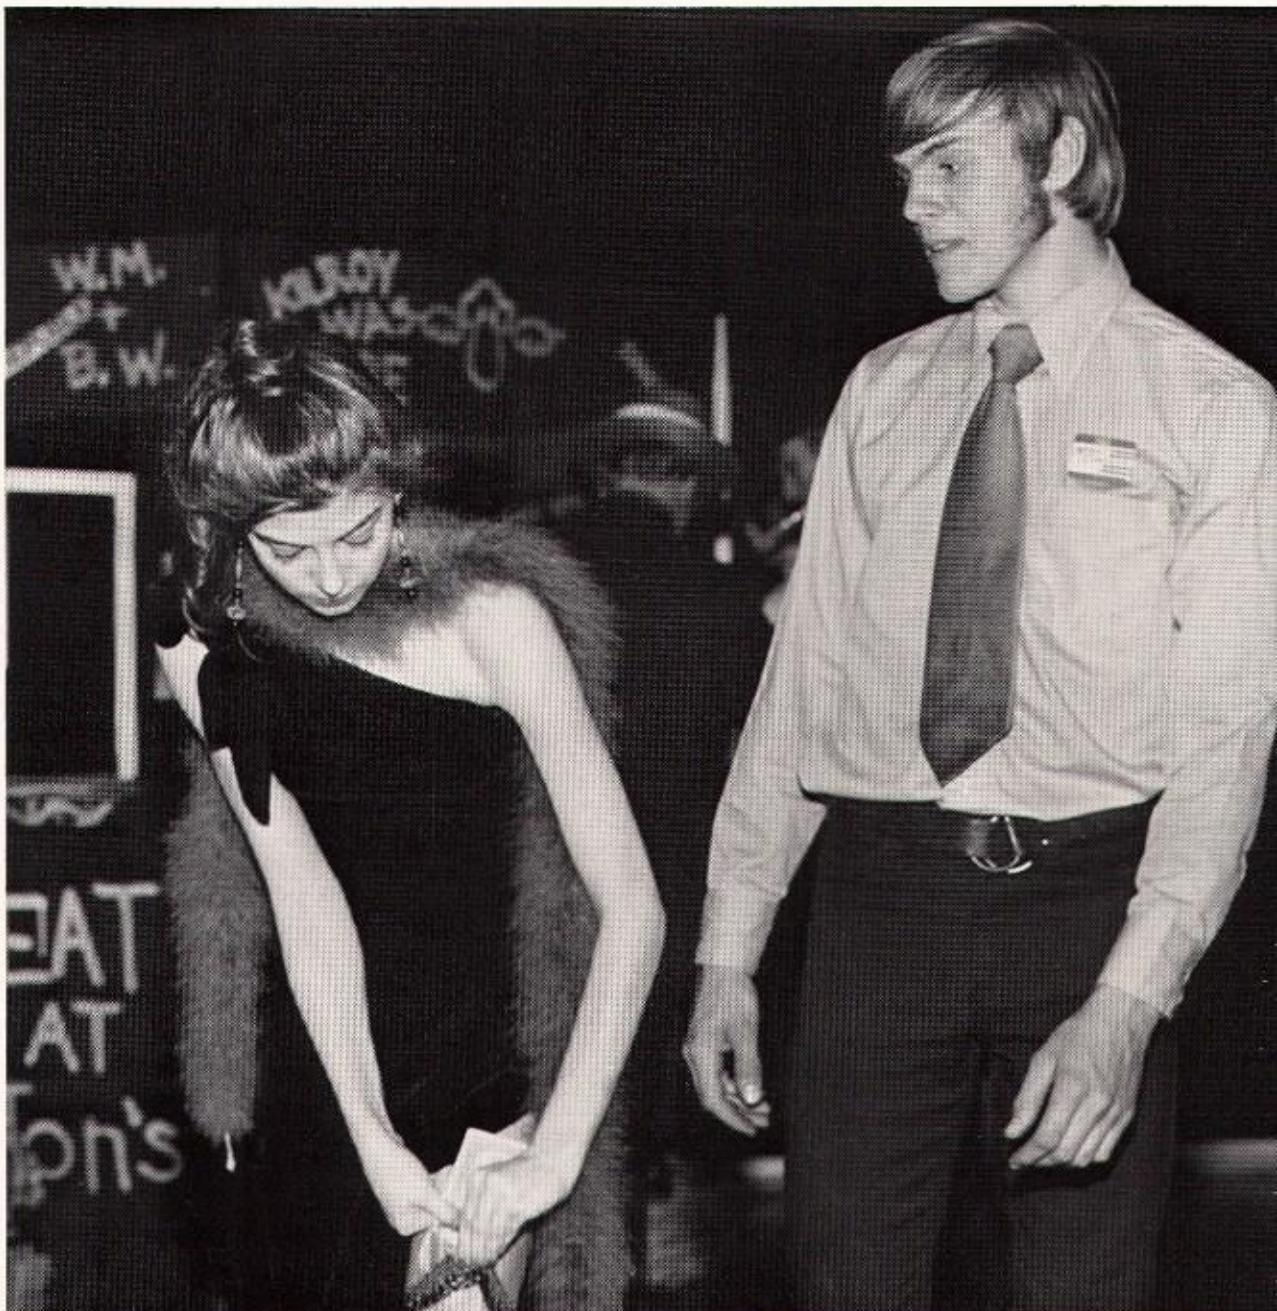

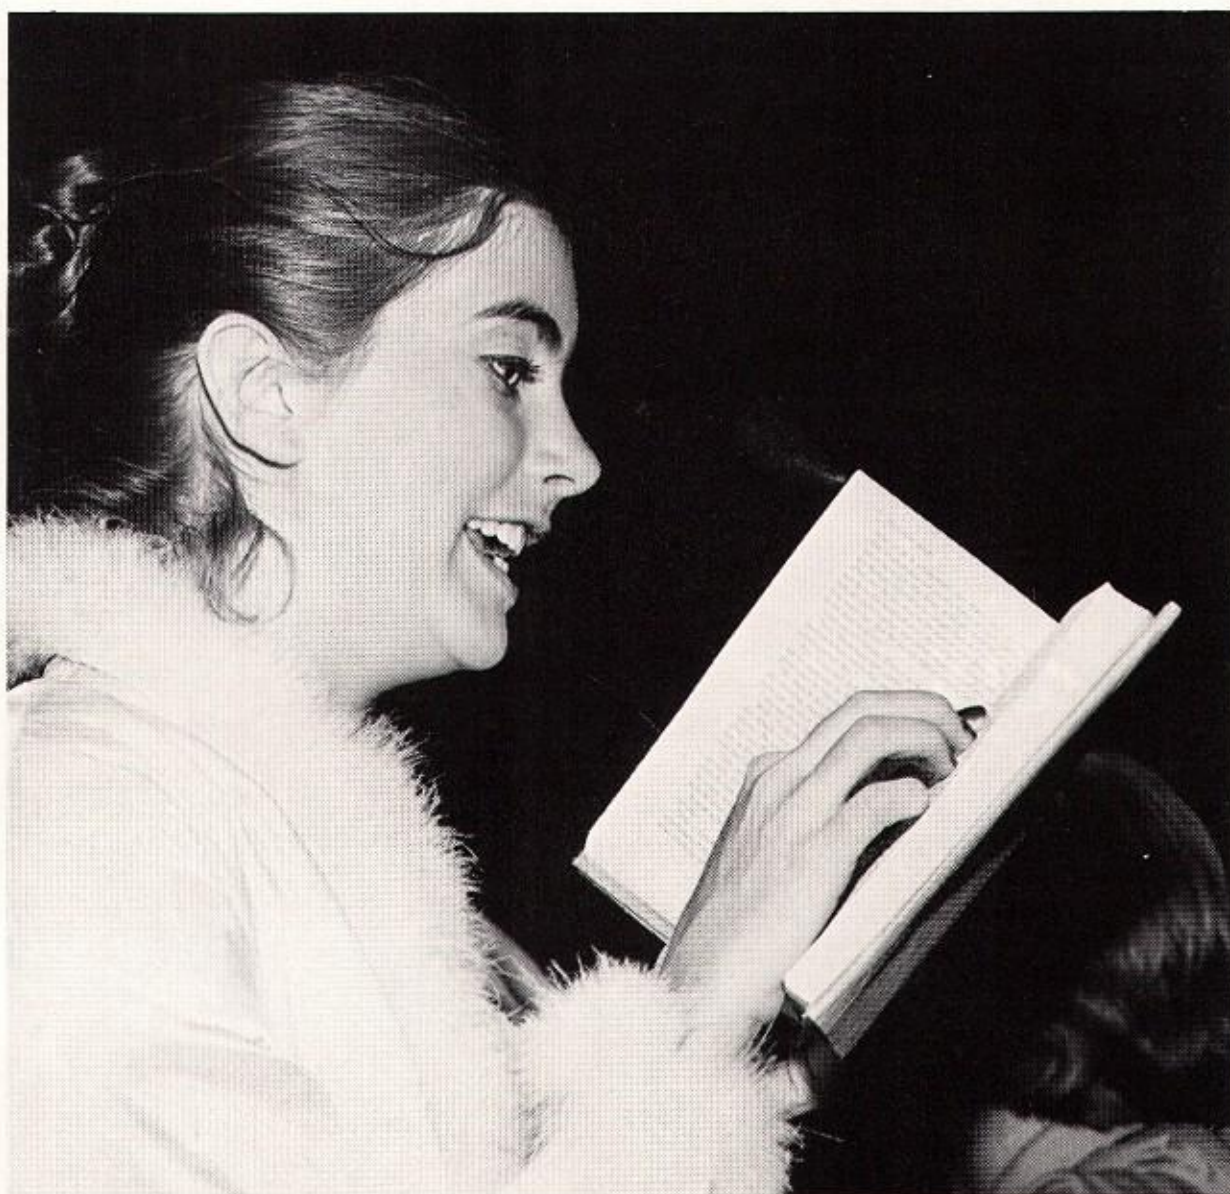

The program continued with the Wind Ensemble playing highlights from "Hello Dolly", conducted by guest conductor Dr. H. E. Nutt. Dr. Nutt is president at Vandercook College of Music. He is nationally known as a clinician, guest conductor and adjudicator as well as being known for his research in music methods and conducting.

The evening concluded with the band playing "Rondo" from Concerto No. 3 in E-Flat and "The Green Bee" with Urbie Green soloist.

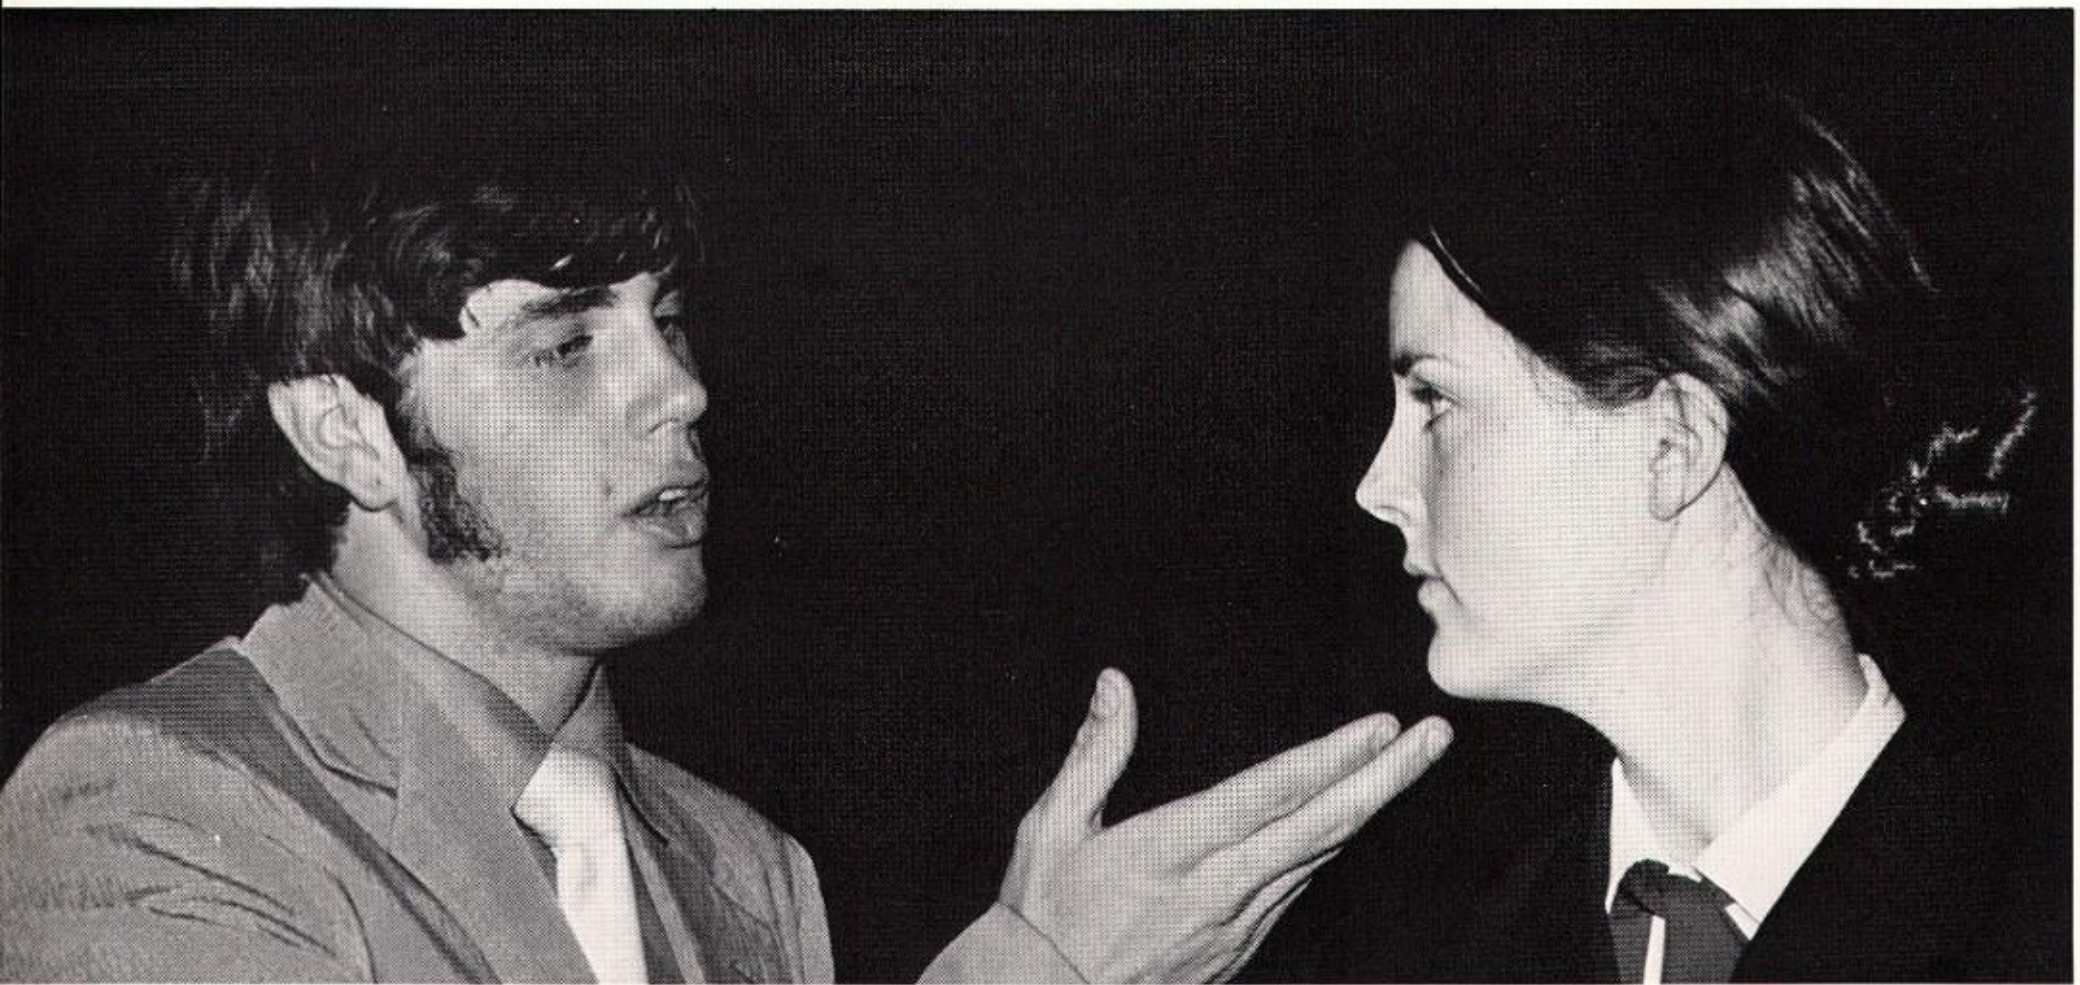

Guys And Dolls Plays Three

Nights — Leads Outstanding

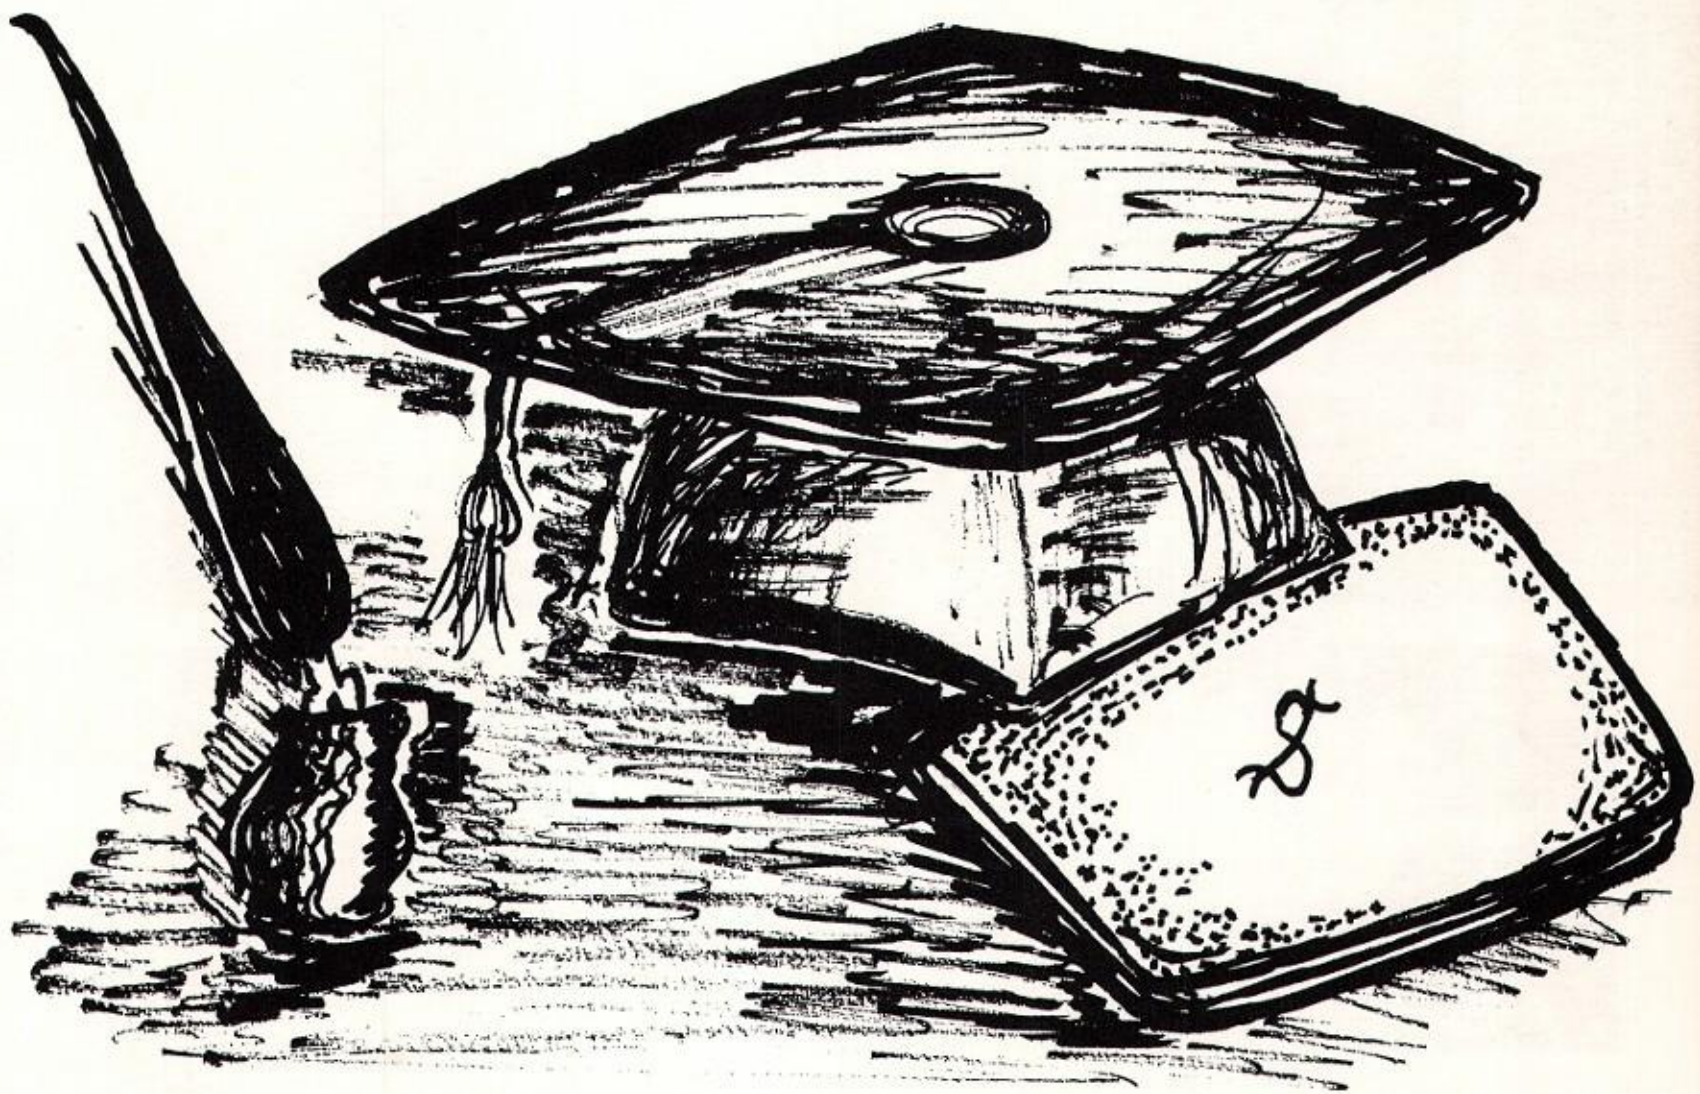

GUYS AND DOLLS sparked the stage of Schaumburg the second weekend in May. Staged by members of the Concert Choir, the Broadway favorite, including such musical highlights as "Bushel and a Peck" and "Luck Be a Lady", featured three intricate dance routines, a spirited chorus and four polished leads. Larry Annable, Carol Thorsen, Mary Slingerland and Wayne Morgan led the combined Salvation Army, gangsters and chorus girls through the fast paced musical. Vicki Vallencourt served as student director.

With the small amount of support shown by the student body, I suppose that yearbooks are a dying tradition. But for those few hundred of you who bought a book and cooperated with us through the year, I would sincerely like to thank you. You made the work and worry worth it in the end. To you and to a memory I dedicate this book. During the year some very special people earned some special thank yous.

MR. CARL WEIMER — for his support in many things during the year and especially for his kind words and understanding when we were waiting for the 1972 book.

FACULTY SERVICE — the lovely ladies who helped to make so many impossible things possible.

MR. KEITH BURTT — who took many of the pictures in this book and never let me down when I asked for a last minute "need-it-now" photo.

CEDRIC "PHANTASMAGORIA" — for the poem I used on page 140.

BETH, JOHN, DEBBIE, PAM, MARGO, GRACE — the best staff around.

TILLIE — for being such a good friend.

JOEL — for helping me sort underclass pictures and for helping me become me.

MY PARENTS — who might not have always understood me, but brought me up to know that I'd have to "pay the piper". The older I get the more I understand them. Thank you for the dreams that have come true.

JOHN VAN HOOK — There are only two other men who mean as much to me as "V" — Santa Claus and Edgar Allen Poe. During the three years I've known and worked with him I've hated him, worshipped him, put up with him, joked with him, fought with him, but have always respected and admired him for the man he is. He has helped a great many people discover themselves and the joys of life. I try with these inadequate words to say thank you.

The

1943 SUNFLOWER . . .

"Paper and ink are the preservers of all recorded knowledge . . . the conveyer of one civilization to another."

. . . . as is true of all previous issues of year books preserves a record of the activities in the lives of that generation which carries on the future of our civilization. No better history of changes and the progress of our youth could be found than to look back into the pages of past year books of high schools and colleges.

Mildred,
 To a very Kind
 and warm person I met this year in English class.
 MAY you Always succeed in every thing you try to do. R.M.A.
 Love,
 Michael

get to know you a lot
 this year
 hope to see you
 more often
 Love, Linda

Mildred,
 you're a real
 nice + cute kid.
 Hope to see you
 next year. Thanks for the notes
 I really enjoy it.
 Love Linda

Mildred
 you're a really sweet kid and I'm glad I got to meet you. I hope though it was in history class. Good luck in everything.
 Love,
 Linda

Mildred,
 You are a real nice kid and I like you a lot. Sorry about our little differences but I hope they are all past now. Good luck in every thing you do, you deserve it!
 Love,
 Deb

very sweet kid
 I hope you have a good day

Mildred,
 To a very sweet kid. Thanks for all the luck
 you gave me
 Love, Linda

Mildred
 you're a very nice person
 I hope you
 have a good
 day

Mildred -
I hope we remain friends for a long time. Remember everyone we talked about in homeroom last year. ^{and this year} in Spanish. You've been such a good friend. I just hope I've been as good a friend to you as you've been to me.
Good luck
always!
Love, Carol

Mildred
We really never met thoroughly, but we did become pretty good friends. But I am sorry we couldn't become just a little better. But anyhow I am thankful for what we did do & have. Better Luck!
Love
Frank
